

An ASN Official is a person who:

- presents themselves professionally in appearance and in a physical condition to perform duties.
- respects themselves, and in turn treats and respects each of the participants (organizers, other officials, drivers and team members), in the context of their activity, without regard to sex, ethnic origin, religion or political orientation.
- is not officious, bossy, overbearing, or focuses on self-importance, and is a role model to other officials.
- is a team player that knows their function in detail and works in harmony with other officials.
- knows the ASN, Series or Event Regulations inside out as it relates to their function, and never pretends to know the regulations if they do not.
- has a positive attitude.
- makes a commitment and keeps it, particularly with regard to being on-time at events.
- remains calm and discrete, always behaves in a professional manner, and knows that getting angry rarely accomplishes anything positive.
- knows how to listen and does not interrupt others when they are speaking.
- is impartial, conscientious and works within the framework of their assigned duties.
- whether on duty or not, abstains from commenting on the decisions of the other officials.
- accepts and is not offended if one of their decisions be nullified or reversed.
- who contributes to recruiting and to the growth of the ASN family of officials by their encouragement and work.

Fair Play Code for Officials

- I will make sure that every competitor has a reasonable opportunity to perform to the best of their ability, within the limits of the rules.
- I will maintain a safe, healthy atmosphere and environment for competition.
- I will avoid or put an end to any situation that threatens the safety of the drivers and other officials.
- I will not permit the intimidation of any driver either by word or by action.
- I will not tolerate unacceptable conduct toward myself, other officials, or drivers.
- I will be consistent and objective in calling all infractions, regardless of my personal feelings toward a team or individual driver, or other official.
- I will handle all conflicts firmly but with dignity according to the rules.
- I accept my role as an educator and role model for fair play.
- I will be open to discussion and contact with drivers before and after an event.
- I will remain open to constructive criticism and show respect and consideration for different points of view.
- I will seek and obtain proper training and continue to upgrade my officiating skills.
